HIGHLIGHTS

North Vietnamese Army units reportedly are re-occupying positions which they held prior to recent allied clearing operations in the Demilitarized Zone.

I. The Military Situation in South Vietnam:

There are continuing reports of NVA units moving back into the southeastern portion of the DMZ (Paras. 1-3).

II. Political Developments in South Vietnam:

Regional police chiefs in the I, II, and IV Corps areas are reportedly being replaced by Military Security Service officers, possibly in order to place Ky supporters in influential positions prior to the elections (Paras. 3-4).

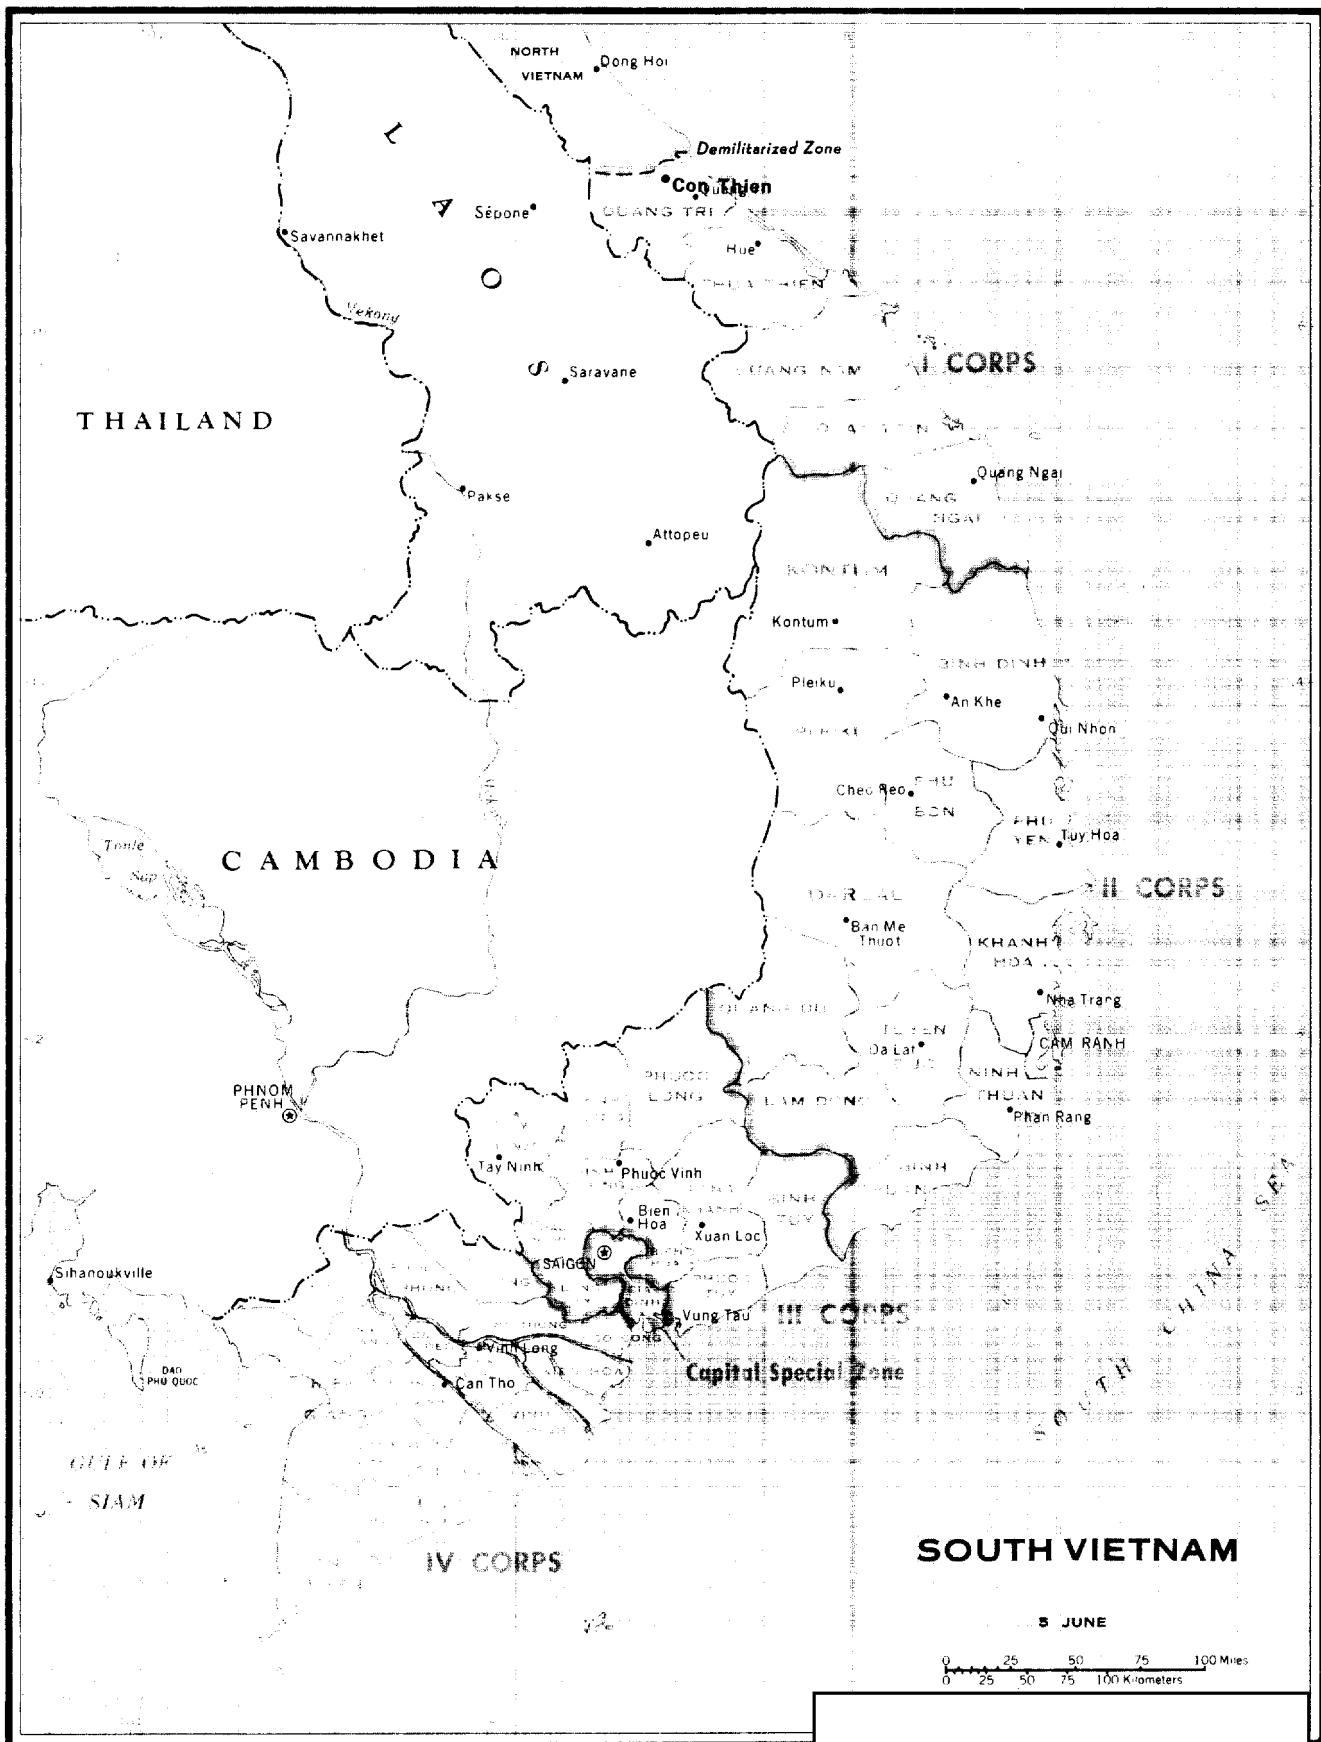

III. North Vietnamese Military Developments:

There is nothing of significance to report.

V. Communist Political Developments:

There is nothing of significance to report.

Replacement of I, II, and IV Corps National Police Chiefs

3. National Police Regional Director for IV Corps, Cao Xuan Hong, received an official order from the Police Directorate on 2 June advising him that he would be replaced on 5 June by a Military Security Service (MSS) officer, Major Doan Bo Tran. Both Hong and IV Corps Commander General Nguyen Van Manh believe that Hong's replacement is politically motivated and that Premier Ky wants one of his own supporters in control of the police in the delta during the elections. According to Hong, there has also been friction between himself and police director General Nguyen Ngoc Loan. Hong attributes this to his attempts to eliminate corruption among some MSS officials in the delta.

4. Two other regional police chiefs are also to be replaced in the near future by MSS officers
